

WILL FRANCE AND ENGLAND FIGHT?

MUCH INTEREST ON THE CONTINENT IN THEIR DISPUTE

British Attitude Is Imperative and the Gauls Must Evacuate Fashoda Or Encounter An Armed Force—Preparations Being Made For a Desperate War.

London, Oct. 18.—[Special].—There is much interest here over affairs in the Sudan, and the fact is generally accepted that a war with France is imminent unless that country backs down completely. England's supremacy in Egypt is essential to the nation and the feeling in official circles is that it must not be questioned. Preparations for a possible war are going forward with energy, and the nation will be fully prepared for any emergency that may arise.

Paris, Oct. 18.—[Special].—It is semi-officially announced that France will withdraw the Marchand expedition from Fashoda as soon as a messenger now en route arrives there.

London, Oct. 18.—All signs point to war between Great Britain and France. Great Britain is preparing quietly and unostentatiously to put her warships in fighting trim, and orders have been issued that no British manufacturers are to make or accept contracts for arms or ammunition without the consent of the government.

Work is rushed on all war vessels in the dock yards. One of the leading small arms manufacturers has been asked if he is prepared to turn out 1,000 magazine rifles weekly. This is significant, when it is remembered that the government factories alone are turning out about 4,000 a week.

France, it is reported, is not inactive. Four armored cruisers at Toulon have been ordered to prepare at once for active service. Vice Admiral Fournier, now at Tunis with Mr. Lockrey, minister of marine, will return immediately to Toulon. The cruisers ordered out are the Admiral Trehouart, Bourvines, Jemmapes and Valmy. Orders have also been issued to send gunners for the forts and batteries at Brest.

All these warlike preparations are regarded as indicative that the friction arising from the planting of the French flag by Major Marchand at Fashoda, a post on the Nile below Khartoum, claimed by Egypt, is growing more acute.

Everything hinges on the nature of the report of Major Marchand, which is now on its way to the French foreign office, through the courtesy of the British government in allowing one of Marchand's officers to go through this line of communication.

The French foreign office is asserting that Major Marchand overshot his goal, and that, instead of going to Fashoda, he ought to have stopped at the confluence of the Bahr-el-Ghazal. France will not be permitted to install herself on the Bahr-el-Ghazal, which is described as the "paying reef" of the Sudan. All the rest of the reconquered territory, as far as Fashoda, is comparatively valueless, being mostly desert ground, which cannot be made to pay for many years.

French diplomats are looking to Russia for help, but as the czar is shortly to visit Queen Victoria Englishmen doubt whether the republic will receive much encouragement.

It is believed Great Britain and Russia have reached an agreement about all points over which they were in conflict, and as the czar is going ahead with the preparations for the congress to discuss universal disarmament it is taken to mean that he has little interest in a quarrel between Great Britain and France over the Sudan.

Denial Is Made by France.

Paris, Oct. 18.—A semi-official note says that the statements to the effect that the French war ships which are being placed on a war footing have been ordered to Brest is incorrect, and it is added that undue importance has been attached to the incident.

Great Britain Makes Demands.

London, Oct. 18.—A dispatch to a London news agency from Shanghai says: "Reports from Japanese sources are incriminating here to the effect that Sir Claude Macdonald (British minister at Peking) had informed the Chinese government that sovereignty appertains solely to the emperor, who has been forcibly abducted and deposed, and that he must be restored to his position, while Kang Yu-Wei and the other reformers must be pardoned. Failing compliance, Great Britain will enforce these demands."

Great President McKinley.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—For sixty-five minutes President McKinley stood with uncovered head in an improvised reception space on the first balcony of the First regiment armory, greeting in turn each individual of the forty-five a minute who passed before him, giving a smile and a courteous welcome to every one as his outstretched hand was shaken.

SMALL CROWDS FOR CHICAGO

Bad Weather Diminished the Number Going to the Jubilee

The cold weather today put a damper on the crowds going to Chicago from here. On both local roads in the neighborhood of a hundred left today, and if the weather is more favorable tomorrow a much larger crowd is expected. The St. Paul road on the new and handsome 7 o'clock train is carrying its share, and the local officials of the road are much pleased.

THREE BURN TO DEATH

Children of Michael Anderson, at L'Anse, Mich., Meet a Terrible Fate.

L'Anse, Mich., Oct. 18.—[Special].—Three children of Michael Anderson, aged two, four and six years respectively, were burned to death today at Pequignin. Their house caught fire while the father was away and the mother was out milking. The place burned very quickly, and the children were fatally burned before they could be reached.

HIS FATE A MYSTERY

Nothing Is Definitely Known About the Chinese Emperor's Condition Or Whereabouts.

London, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The mystery surrounding the condition of the Chinese emperor is as dark as ever. A Peking dispatch says a French physician made a critical examination of his majesty's condition, but neither the result or the nature of his alleged illness is given.

TALK OF ARBITRATION.

Report That the Coal Men Are Ready to Confer with the Miners.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 18.—It is rumored here that the Chicago-Virden Coal company is ready to arbitrate. A message to that effect was received by an official of the miners' union, and his opinion was asked by some of the state officials as to whether such a proposition would be acceptable to the miners. The official telegraphed back that he was not ready to answer positively for the miners, but for himself he said that he was opposed to arbitration at this time.

The grand jury will meet Wednesday and the case against President Loucks, Superintendent Lukens and the company's guards will be laid before it. Col. Young no longer holds the mine officials. The warrants have not been served on them, but it is understood that their cases are practically the same as those of the guards and that they will appear before the grand jury.

Spread of Fever at an End.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 18.—Contrary to general expectation Jackson's report of new cases of yellow fever for Monday is unusually large, the total being fifteen. This is accounted for by the fact that the cool weather tends to develop the disease in persons whose systems already contain the germs of infection, but it is believed that further spread is not possible with the prevailing temperature. There were no deaths, but several are seriously sick. The board of health official report shows twenty-five new cases and two deaths at other points in the state.

Must Give Up State Rifles.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—Gov. Tanner Monday sent an order to Sheriff Coburn at Pana directing him to turn over all state rifles in his possession to Major Butler, who is in command of the military forces there. Three weeks ago 300 state rifles were sent to Sheriff Coburn to be used in protecting life and property at Pana. The governor's action in demanding the return of these rifles was brought about by a shooting affray there among the negroes.

Leads the League Pitchers.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—According to record of games won and lost behind his box work, Al Maul leads the pitchers of the National league for the season of 1898. By less misleading data also he is shown to be about the most effective twirler of them all. Only 2.74 runs on the average each game were made off his pitching. Griffith is the only other whose record is below three. The opposing batting average against his pitching was .225, surpassed only by that of Nichols of Boston, with .211.

Management of Convicts.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—The employment of prison labor and the relation of organized labor thereto was the chief topic discussed at Monday's session of the National Prison Association. Many states, like Indiana, are trying to solve the problem. The state has more than 1,000 prisoners idle and finds organized labor opposing any effort to bring the products of prison labor into competition with that of free labor.

Law Is Not Changed.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The house of bishops of the Episcopal church convention, by the decisive vote of 31 to 20, rejected all substitutes for the proposed canon of marriage and divorce, and agreed to leave the canon as it now stands. This action was decisive, as it would require a two-thirds vote under the rules of the house to take the matter up again.

MUCH APATHY IN STATE CAMPAIGN

NEITHER PARTY SEEMS TO BE CREATING MUCH STIR

Republicans Are Confident They Will Carry State By Average Majority—Ill Health Will Not Permit Gov. Scofield To Take the Stump—Gen. Bragg Disgruntled.

While on the surface there has been but little excitement attendant upon the political campaign in this state, a good deal of effective work has been done by the republican leaders. Few speakers have been on the stump. Those who have canvassed the state, however, report that the people are far from apathetic, and while a large vote is not expected, it is believed that the republican majority will be equal if not greater than the average.

Gov. Scofield will make but two speeches during the campaign—one at his home in Oconto and the other at Marinette. His health has been precarious of late, and this, together with the labor required of him in caring for the interests of the soldiers from the state has prevented him from devoting much time to politics.

Derelict Election Inspectors.

Complaints are being made by the chairman of the county committees of the different parties that the inspectors of election are not furnishing them with copies of the registration lists. In speaking of this yesterday Chairman Bruce of the Democratic County committee, said: In accordance with the law, every inspector is obliged, immediately after a registration, to file five copies of the registration list in each of the several political headquarters. In case of a failure to do so they will forfeit their pay for services rendered in registration booths. At the democratic headquarters a list of the derelict inspectors will be kept and filed with the city clerk before the meeting of the next council.

Gen. Bragg Doesn't Care

That veteran democrat Gen. Edward S. Bragg, told some of his friends in Milwaukee yesterday that he was out of politics, that he had but recently returned from New York, and knew little of affairs in Wisconsin. He said there appeared to be political apathy everywhere, and that only the persons interested were the candidates. Gen. Bragg said it was his opinion that quite a number of the Wisconsin gold democrats would vote the republican ticket this fall, but that a great many of them would not vote at all. He said there was little question about the re-election of J. H. Davidson to congress in the Sixth district.

Gen. Bragg had not as yet read the address to gold democrats, just issued from Indianapolis, and therefore could not discuss the letter or its effect.

STARS AND STRIPES RAISED IN SAN JUAN

AMERICANS TAKE FORMAL POSSESSION OF PORTO RICO

Natives Are Rejoiced and Spaniards Take the Change Philosophically—A New Era Of Prosperity Expected to Dawn—Delay in the Evacuation of Cuba.

Washington, Oct. 18.—[Special].—Advices from Ponce and San Juan, Porto Rico, state that the United States troops took formal possession of every branch of the government today at noon. The American flag was raised over all the fortifications and public buildings and at the custom houses the laws of the United States were in force. The receipts for customs were considerable. There was no disturbance anywhere, although the change of government caused much commotion. As a rule the natives are rejoiced at the change. The Spaniards are somewhat distrustful, yet hope for a stable government which shall protect them in their property rights. They have been preparing for the change ever since the suspension of the war, and will proceed with their business upon the old lines. It is thought that the crops put in this year will be larger than for several years past, as the island is more tranquil than it has been for many years past.

San Juan, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The American commission formally took possession of the island today in the name of the United States. The flag was raised over the palace and a national salute fired.

Washington, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The war department was officially notified this afternoon of the raising of the American flag over the palace of San Juan.

DEBT DISPUTE IS SETTLED

Cuban Obligations Must Be Assumed By Spanish Government

Paris, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The chief contention in the Spanish-American peace commission—the payment of the Cuban debt—has at last been settled. Spain has agreed to pay the Cuban debt. For a time it was feared that a rupture would take place on this issue but from the start the American commissioners were firm in refusing to listen to a proposition to assume the debt and the Spaniards, after a good deal of bluster, finding no other thing to do, surrendered absolutely. The only remaining question to dispose of over which there is likely to be much contention is the disposition of the Philippines. There is no difference of opinion on this matter among the American commissioners. They will insist upon an entire surrender of the Spanish sovereignty over these. The only remaining question will be how far American authority will be extended—whether the islands will become an absolute American possession or whether a protectorate will be established. The natives being assured of independence. It is the opinion that if the latter course is adopted it will be only a matter of a few years until the United States will be compelled to take full possession, as the natives are not fitted for self government, and cannot give the islands a lasting peace.

EVACUATION OF HAVANA.

Spaniards Are Reluctant to Surrender Their Sovereignty.

Havana, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The Spanish military commission has sent a reply to the American note concerning evacuation. The Spanish insist that the troops cannot be sent from the island as rapidly as the Americans desire. The Spanish note declares that evacuation, according to the terms of the protocol, means only the withdrawal of the military and not the surrender of Spain's sovereignty in Cuba. It says Spain is sovereign here until the peace commission settles the question.

TELLS ABOUT THE FEVER.

Jacksonville, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The war investigating committee resumed its session here this morning. Referring to the typhoid epidemic, Maus said the disease was brought from the state camps, among them being the camp of the Second Illinois.

THE CUBAN DEBT.

It Is a Perplexing Problem to the Peace Commissioners.

Paris, Oct. 18.—[Special].—The Gauls say the differences in the joint peace commission arise chiefly from the question of the Cuban debt. The Spaniards contend that the demand that Spain take the debt is equal to a demand for indemnity. The Americans refuse to discuss the point because they received positive instructions thereon.

ONE IN EVERY FOUR

One Person in Every Four Suffers From Piles.

About one person in every four suffers from some form of rectal disease. The most common and annoying is itching piles, indicated by warmth, slight moisture and intense, uncontrollable itching in the parts affected.

The usual treatment has been some simple ointment or salve which sometimes gives temporary relief, but nothing like a permanent cure can be expected from such superficial treatment.

The only permanent cure for itching piles yet discovered is the Pyramid Pile Cure, not only for itching piles, but for every other form of piles, blind, bleeding or protruding. The first application gives instant relief and the continued use for a short time causes a permanent removal of the tumors or the small parasites which cause the intense itching and discomfort of itching piles.

Many physicians for a long time supposed that the remarkable relief afforded by the Pyramid Pile Cure was because it contained cocaine, opium or similar drugs, but such is not the case. A recent careful analysis of the remedy showed it to be absolutely free from cocaine, opium, or in fact any poisonous, injurious drugs whatever. Sold by druggists at 50 cents per package.

Send to Pyramid Co., Marshall, Mich., for free book on cause and cure of piles.

CELEBRATE TIN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jeffris Entertained Their Friends Last Evening

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Jeffris celebrated their tin wedding last evening. It was ten years ago that the couple were married at Oberlin, Ohio. Mrs. Jeffris' name being Jeanette Baldwin. Fifty invitations had been sent out, and in spite of the disagreeable weather nearly all the recipients were present to extend their congratulations. The occasion was one of rare pleasure to all. The parlors were beautifully decorated, and the bride and bridegroom of ten years were in their most genial mood, and welcomed all with the open hearted cordiality for which they are noted in local society.

An elegant supper was served in the course of the evening, and nothing was lacking that would contribute to the enjoyment of the guests. Many unique and tasteful gifts of tin were brought, and there was much merriment over the ingenuity displayed in their selection and manufacture. Few social events of recent occurrence have been more enjoyable, and all present united in the hope that the host and hostess would live to celebrate their diamond jubilee.

Newcomb Lee Is Surprised to Find So Few Prisoners in Jail.

Newcomb Lee, who is now in jail charged with stealing an overcoat and a suit of clothes from Matt Whison, of Beloit, about a week ago, is alleged to have made a full confession acknowledging his guilt.

He says there is no secret about the matter, and that he is willing to take his medicine when the proper time comes.

Lee says that things look natural about the jail, but that he was surprised to find so few prisoners confined there.

REV. JONES WILL ERECT NEW CHURCH

UNDERTAKE LARGE TASK IN CHICAGO

Former Local Divine Will See To It That One Of The Most Unique And Largest Sacred Structures In This Country Is Soon Started—Will Cost a Fortune.

Rev. Jenkyn Lloyd Jones, who for a number of years was pastor of All Souls' church in this city, but who has been located in Chicago of late years, is about to begin the erection of a handsome, eight-story church building for the congregation of All Souls' church, on Oakwood boulevard, near Langley avenue, in Chicago.

The new church will be unique in style. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 1,000, and will be arranged in amphitheater form, with a stage and all the appurtenances of a theater. In addition there will be a "Bible reading room," a publication room and rooms for the various offices of the society. The building will have a frontage of 70 feet on Oakwood boulevard, and will be 115 feet deep.

Hopes For the Future.

"It is the future, not the past," said Mr. Jones, "that justifies this building. It is to meet the want that is coming—a new type of religious institution, a center around which will gather the common, ethical and spiritual interests of the neighborhood, and from which radiate as many of the forces as make for culture, character and the corporate conscience as possible. It will be neither an institution for the wealthy nor for the poor; it will be a home for all, irrespective of their religious and social standing. If it is called a college, we will acknowledge the corn, but it will be a better college than was ever founded before. It will be a college of life, and not one of mere text-books."

Has Made a Reputation.

Since leaving Janesville Mr. Jones has made for himself a reputation in Chicago second to no pastor in that great city, and that he is today considered one of the brightest and most progressive divines in the country there is no denying. He has a host of warm friends in this city.

SNOWSTORM IN THE WEST.

Terrific Gale Rages in Many States.

MUCH DAMAGE IN NEBRASKA.

Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Other States Experience the Most Remarkable Weather Ever Known at This Season of the Year.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 18.—Nebraska had a real snowstorm Monday night, with some of the marks of a South Dakota blizzard. Not in the memory of the first pioneers of the state has such a storm visited this section prior to December. The wind reached the velocity of a hurricane, and about midnight snow began to fall. About five inches covers the state.

Out in the state in the sheep and cattle districts the probabilities are that much damage will result. The high wind, which is really very severe, drive many sheep and cattle away out of the usual range, where they can scarcely be rescued.

The unexpected snowstorm hit the army posts in the department of the Missouri very hard. The volunteer soldiers, equipped only with summer clothing, were in no condition to meet the cold weather.

STORM IN THE SOUTHWEST.

Kansas and Missouri Visited by a Heavy Fall of Snow and Sleet.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 18.—The earliest winter storm in the southwest in twenty-five years and the worst early storm on record has almost completely shut Kansas City off from wire communication with the south, west and north. An opening on the east has alone kept the city from being totally isolated.

On the south a slow wire to Fort Scott, Kan., and Springfield, Mo., has been the limit; on the west Lawrence, Kan., was the farthest point penetrated up to 3 o'clock, and on the north St. Joseph, Mo., has been the boundary. Arkansas City, Wichita and Hutchinson, Kan., on the southwest, Denver on the west and Omaha on the north have been as silent as if blotted off the map. Hundreds of telegraph and telephone poles out in the open have either been blown down by the strong wind or broken by the weight of the snow-covered wires.

Howling Blizzard in Texas.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 18.—Northern and central Texas have been swept by a howling blizzard for the last twenty-four hours. The mercury has fallen approximately fifty degrees during that time, and indications are for more severe weather. So far the blizzard has been what is known in this section as a "dry norther," but reports state that rain and sleet are approaching from the north and have reached Little Rock. The last growth of top crop of cotton is in danger of being destroyed, but even at that the crop will reach close to the 3,000,000-bale mark.

Severe Storm in Mississippi.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18.—A remarkable storm has raged for twenty-four hours in the trans-Mississippi country. The snow was falling all Monday afternoon in scores of Mississippi towns and reports from the majority of them show that snow continues to fall, while the mercury is rapidly moving down. Snow was reported from St. Joseph, Hamilton, Moberly, Sedalia, Marshall, Fayette, Carthage, Warrensburg, Chillicothe and, in fact, nearly every town in the northwestern, western and northern central sections of Missouri.

Hurricanes on the Atlantic.

St. Johns, N. F., Oct. 18.—All the recent steamship arrivals here report hurricanes on the Atlantic.

Christian Missionary Convention.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 18.—The annual convention of the American Christian Missionary Society, the largest organization of the Christian church, began here Monday. About 2,000 delegates are in attendance. The annual report of the board showed an extension of the work along all lines. Cincinnati was unanimously chosen as the next place of meeting, the society having been organized there fifty years ago. The rest of the day was given over to papers and addresses on various subjects connected with the work.

Union Shops Are Preferred.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Acting Postmaster General Heath has issued an order directing the supply division of the department to hereafter have the printing in the various cities which by reason of its urgency cannot be done by the government printing office awarded to shops employing union printers. He also directed that in the purchase of supplies for the use of the department preference be given articles of American manufacture.

State's Claim Paid in Full.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—The national government has paid in full the claim of this state for $250,000 for feeding and equipping the Illinois regiments that went into the volunteer service. The money has been received from Washington and Gen. Recoe was busy all day Monday taking up claims against the state held by various Springfield merchants.

Lord Berensford at Peking.

Peking, Oct. 18.—Lord Charles Berensford, who has been entrusted by the British government with a special mission to China, arrived here yesterday.

WASTED EFFORTS.

He Tried to Be a Hero, but Got No Chance.

"Well, did you have a good time?" asked one young man of another who had been spending Sunday with some country friends.

The returned wanderer ran his hand through his back hair and looked puzzled.

"Really," he answered, "I can't say whether I did or not. I was supposed to, and I did most of the time, but I had the worst fright of my life just the same."

"What was it?" asked his friend.

"You might as well tell me."

The other looked down at his shoes, drew a long sigh and then started in on the story.

"It happened on Sunday evening. You know I have some other friends who are camping just across the lake, and as it was a lovely night I thought that I'd just row over to their place and have a chat. So into the boat I got and began to pull away, when suddenly I heard a yell that made my hair rise straight up on end—a yell that you never forget when once you've heard it—the yell of a drowning man."

"It had sounded over to my right, and I twisted the boat around with a jerk that nearly lost me both my oars and started toward it, rowing for dear life and peering into the gloom till my eyes ached."

"But when the cry came again it sounded farther off than ever, and the third time it was decidedly on my left. 'Echoes,' thought I, and rowed harder. By that time the perspiration was running down my face and body in perfect rivers, and I was puffing like a steam engine, but on I kept, working away toward that dreadful, agonizing yell, when suddenly it stopped. 'Dead,' thinks I. 'Well, I'll have to look for the body,' when it came again, way off behind me somewhere. That was the last straw. No echo could twist around in that manner, but, just the same, I wasn't going to work any more for that chap. If he had been decent and drowned in one place, I'd have done my best to make a heroic rescue, but no one could expect me to chase after a man who persisted in drowning all over the lake and who took such an overbearing time about it into the bargain."

I began to think that it would be rather a good thing to have such an idiot off the face of the earth, and letting all my sympathetic vim die out I rowed slowly over to the camp and reached there more tired than I've been since I quit taking the girls out on my tandem."

The first thing I heard when the boys saw me was: "Hello, Bill! Hear the loon that's been piping around here? Doleful, isn't it?"

"Was that a loon?" says I, dropping down on a roll of blankets. "Well, then, there were two of them, and the other was lots the biggest."

"The boys couldn't tell what I meant, and they don't know to this day; don't intend they shall, either. There are some jokes on yourself that are too good to tell." And as the young man lit a cigar and smoothed down his hair once more he looked as if he almost regretted having told it at all, but it was too late. The fatal deed was done.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Its Meaning.

"Right up the hill," read the proofreader of the publishing house, "the regiment charged in grim silence, broken only by the continuous musketry fire on both sides." I wonder what that means.

"That's the way it is here," replied the man who was holding copy. "It means, I think, that the author is an ex-policeman."—Chicago Tribune.

Never Taken For a Bear.

"There's a man who has had many a narrow escape from being shot."

"Indeed! Was he one of the rough riders who rushed up that hill at Canyon?"

"No. He was an Adirondack guide for nearly three weeks."—Chicago News.

Power.

Dolly—Papa, do they get salt out of Salt Lake?

Papa—Yes, my dear, large quantities.

Dolly—And ink out of the Black sea?

Papa—No. Now keep quiet.

Dolly—Yessir. Are there any women on the Isle of Man?—New York Truth.

Taken at His Word.

Wife—Your brother is getting to be a terrible bore.

Husband—In what particular?

Wife—I asked after his health this morning, and he sat down and told me all about it.—Stray Stories.

Her Reason.

Bill—Why did the boarding house woman call that a shore dinner do you suppose?

Jill—Oh, because there was lots of sand in the sugar, I guess!—Yonkers Statesman.

Very.

Mistress—I don't think you need get anything home, Mary.

Cook—Shouldn't I bring a few eggs, mum? Sure, they're nice things to fall back on.—Judy.

MISSION WORK IN CITIES.

Address of President Power of the Christian Convention.

Chattanooga, Oct. 18.—At the session of the Christian convention here President F. D. Power of Washington, D. C., in his address on missions said: "The scope of missions involves the cultivation of the whole field. Should we follow the leadings of the Spirit we would first take the cities. We shall begin to understand the first principles of home mission work when we get down to solid work among the great aggregations of humanity. If Paul should come to America he would not begin to preach at some western or southern cross-road, but would move on Greater New York or Chicago. Alexander Campbell, perhaps, did all right to start on Buffalo creek and found Bethany college, but for his greater work he should have settled in Boston or Philadelphia. Cities dominate the land. What they say decides matters of financial policy, of government, of education and, to some extent, of morals and religion. Our cities are grinding away in their murder mills, gambling dens and houses of infamy, grinding away day and night, grinding up, not corn and wheat, but men and women and children, and calling to the country villages and towns with insatiable greed; 'Give us more, more men, more women and more children for our horrible grist.' The sooner our missionary boards come to understand and recognize these claims the better for our cause at home and in all lands."

A Loon to Weak Men

The depression caused by certain kinds of sickness is terribly wearing, and weakens and runs you down more rapidly than the physical disease itself. Weak men know this. The consciousness of having lost vitality and vigor, perhaps foolishly, is simply maddening. Once, however, let the victim see a prospect of recovery and this passes away. The vigorous man sees light ahead, sees renewed strength and vitality in the immediate future and is soon cured. But it takes the highest skill and the widest experience to bring this about. Dr. Greene, 148 State Street, Chicago, Ill., the distinguished specialist can accomplish this. He cures the most desperate cases of weakness and debility. You can consult him by letter, free. Write to him and get his advice and you will be glad.

THE CAMPAIGN CRY

The American Economist has the following:

Just now the free trade editors are having so much to say about the "needlessness of protection," and in proof of their contention cite the heavy sales of our manufactured products in foreign countries. If we were able to export nearly $300,000,000 worth of manufactures in the last fiscal year, why should we have any tariff at all? If we have outgrown all fear of foreign competition at home and abroad, why are defensive duties retained? Such are the arguments now being very extensively advanced in the free trade journals. For example, the Wheeling "Register" says:

Why is a high tariff insisted upon?

That is easily answered. It is demanded by the monopolies and trusts at home, who have throttled competition and control absolutely the home market. They charge American consumers double and treble the prices they charge foreigners, as shown by the two separate catalogues of prices they furnish their home and foreign consumers. Because the tariff shields them from competition in the home market, while abroad they are forced to sell on the free trade basis and pay a tariff to boot, which they do and make a profit. How much unjust profit they thus are enabled to extort from the defenseless American consumer may be conjectured. Suffice it to say the American consumer is robbed and plundered by these tariff fostered monopolies every day. Instead of reaping the benefits of living in the very midst of these factories and in the home market where their products should be cheapest, the American consumer is compelled to pay several prices—a big tariff bonus—and he can't help himself, for the Chinese tariff wall fences him in and compels him to buy of the protected trusts and monopolies. The only persons benefited by the arrangement besides the trusts, who thus grow quickly rich, are their foreign customers. These trusts sell abroad at absolute free-trade prices because in foreign markets they can't help themselves—abroad they are on the wrong side of the tariff wall and have to pay the duty, which they do and still make a profit.

This was a fair sample of the stuff that is being put in circulation in the hope of persuading the American people that protection has outlived its usefulness and is only retained for the benefit of trusts and monopolies. Of course it is foolishly false to assert that American consumers are compelled to pay twice and three times the prices which foreigners pay for the manufactured goods exported from the United States. Of course it is false and foolish to say that protection is unnecessary, because out of a total production of $8,000,000,000 manufactured goods of the value of $288,000,000 were last year sold to foreign countries. These things are, nevertheless, relied upon to carry conviction, for it is a fact that a free-trade lie travels faster and further than a protection truth, because the leaders of free-trade literature very seldom hear more than one side of the argument. It is safe for the Wheeling "Register" to indulge in these astonishing misstatements. They will, of course, be promptly characterized by the Protectionist press as atrociously untrue; but that will make no difference to the "Register," whose lies, well stuck to, are not likely to be overtaken by the truth. So, having erected for itself a fantastic structure of falsehood, the "Register" puts on the finishing touches, as follows:

It will take a popular tidal wave to sweep the trusts from their entrenchments, or in other words to reverse the republican majority in congress, but we believe it can and will be accomplished at the coming elections. Then the democracy will be in good shape to complete the victory by electing two years later a democratic president, whose first duty will be to the people and not the trusts.
The skies ahead are bright, and if the democracy will stand shoulder to shoulder all along the line ultimate victory will be theirs.
Not all of the free trade campaign liars are so utterly reckless and unconstrained in the matter of statement as the West Virginia authority just quoted, but they are all alike in the conclusion reached—viz., "protection is no longer necessary." It is to be the campaign cry for 1898, and if it wins this year in the congressional elections they expect to sweep the country two years hence.

Robert More, the republican candidate for assemblyman in the second district of Rock county, is one of the sterling citizens of the county. He has always served the people well, and always will do so, for he is an honest man. Mr. More will vote to send a republican United States senator to Washington. Vote for him and see that others do the same.

The Minneapolis Journal says: "American bids are now rejected in England because they are American bids. It is a foregone conclusion that the American bids will be the lowest. But the English naturally enough want to give the contracts to their own people. England will yet have a protective tariff."

The Madison Democrat says: "When Jo. Quarles sets out to answer O'Connor all he need do to make out a clear case is to read the court records in the roster suit."

Imports continue to decrease while exports continue to increase, despite democracy's claim that a protective tariff would destroy our foreign market.

Congressional nominations are empty honors for our democratic brethren to bestow this fall, and hence they have gone begging.

Racine Journal—Protection to American industries is not to be side tracked by false and misleading cries for cheap money.

Vote the straight republican ticket this fall and thus show that you are opposed to free trade and free silver theories.

How much political truth did you ever get from the lips of the enemy? Cast up the account some time.

WILL HUNT FOR AMBER.

Miss Said to Be on an Island Off the Alaskan Coast.

From the Seattle Post-Intelligencer:
In search of a mine of amber, which, if found, will make the members of the party independently wealthy, an expedition left Sitka a few weeks ago for one of the islands off the Alaskan coast. At its head was an old Russian, Popoff by name, who for thirty years has been trying to get someone with money to send him in search of the amber mine. His history is an interesting one. Some thirty years ago he was a sailor on board a Russian sealing vessel, which was wrecked on one of the small islands off the Alaskan coast. The crew managed to reach another small island in the schooner's boats, and nearly starved before a Russian war vessel happened along and rescued them. While on the island they found quantities of amber and traced it to a big ledge. The pieces of amber, which they had in their possession when taken on board the warship, were taken away by the officers. Popoff managed to smuggle one small piece away, and has hung to it ever since, although he has been all over the world during the years that intervened. He tried many times to have an expedition outfitted, but never succeeded. During the recent mining excitement in the north he got as far as Sitka, where he became stranded. He confided his secret to a few friends and they furnished the money that outfitted the party. Popoff goes with them as guide and expects to be back in Sitka within six months.

CAPT. ANDRUS COMES FROM RACINE HERE

LOOKS LIKE MUSTERING OUT THIS WEEK

At Milwaukee He Talks About How He Will Finish Work After Leaving Cream City—Members Of Co. A. Are at Present In Need Of Ready Cash.

Captain Andrus, who has the work in hand of mustering out the First Wisconsin regiment, stated in Milwaukee last evening that after he finished his work in the Cream City, he would in all probability go direct to Racine, and from there come to Janesville. He expects to get through his work in Milwaukee by Wednesday, and will in all probability be in Racine and finish work there by Thursday night.

May Reach Here Friday.

According to this program, he will be in Janesville Friday or Saturday of this week.

Captain Hanson says that all here is in readiness for him, with the single exception that several of the men residing outside the city have failed to bring in all the equipments belonging to the state. The Milwaukee soldiers who were being mustered out today have considerable money coming to them. They have salary for two months and nineteen days due them and in addition to this they will be allowed nearly $35 each on their clothing account. Most of the privates will get about $70 each. Major Fay will pay each company about $6,000, and the total amount to be left in this city alone amounts to over $20,000.

The preliminary steps for mustering out the Second Wisconsin volunteers have been taken.

Still on the Anxious Seat.

The members of Co. A are still anxiously waiting to learn when they are to be mustered out, and more especially as to when they are to receive their pay for August, September, and up to October 19.

Captain Hanson received no word today. Now that Captain Andrus, chief mustering officer, has at last been given a paymaster, "the boys," who are short of cash, are anxious to know when he will reach Janesville. In addition to the regular pay, they have a clothing allowance coming, and there is due each private from $70 to $90, and more to the officers. As many of the men are without a cent of ready cash, their anxiety is getting intense.

CARS TO START THIS EVENING

Street Railway Will Resume Regular Running Schedule

Supt. Green, of the Janesville street railway, telephoned The Gazette this afternoon that in all probability the cars would start some time this evening. During the past two days men have been at work at the power house putting the break in the machinery bed in repair, and now all is in order for starting. During the present rainy spell the line is missed by the general public.

Petit Jurors.

Notice is hereby given that on Wednesday, the 26th day of October, 1898, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day at the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Rock county, at the court house in the city of Janesville in said county, the petit jurors to serve at the November term of the circuit court for said county for 1898, will be drawn in the manner provided by law.

THOMAS W. GOZMIS, Clerk.

New Use for Electricity.

Hair is now cut by electricity. The apparatus to perform this feat consists of a platinum wire stretched over a comb. By pressing a button, the current is applied to the wire, bringing it to a white heat. The comb is then passed through the hair, and as the wire comes in contact the hair is burned off. The end of each hair being cauterized when cut prevents loss of the oily substance of the hair. The apparatus is attached to an ordinary lamp socket by a flexible cord, and can be used by any barber of ordinary skill.

RACINE FIRM COMPLETES CONTRACT

Have Fulfilled Their Business Accord. ing to Specifications—Street Now Best in the City—Work To Be Commenced On High Street Tomorrow.

That portion of South Main street in the vicinity of Carrington and Wheeler streets that for years has needed attention from the street commissioner, is now as fine a thoroughfare as there is in the city. Cape & Son, the Racine contractors, who were recently given the contract to macadamize it, completed their work today. If rainy weather had not set in and somewhat delayed their work, they would easily have finished by Saturday of last week. As the result of late heavy rains the roller was put to work in several places that needed attention, before the contractors were willing to turn the work over to the city. The specifications for the work on South Main street were about the same as those that called for the macadamizing of North Jackson street, and the work and material on both streets vary but little. Plank curbing was used in most places, as the expense was much less than stone. South Main street has for years been one of the leading thoroughfares of the town, and it is doubtful if any road leading into the city is more used by the farmers.

South High Street Paving.

J. H. Watson, of this city, who was awarded the contract to macadamize that portion of South High street bordering the High school property, will put a force of men at work tomorrow morning to get the street in readiness. Mr. Watson will carry out plans about the same as those adopted by Cape & Sons, of Racine, in macadamizing North Jackson and South Main street, and will rush the work to completion so as not to be overcome by snow storms and cold weather.

COURT SENTENCED

SPLINTER GIRL

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL NOW AWAITS HER

Father Ordered Her Arrest Because He Said He Had No Control Over Her —Mother is Dead—Is But Fifteen And She Spent Last Night In Jail.

Because her father and stepmother had no control over her, fourteen-year-old Annie Splinter, of Highland avenue was this morning sentenced to the state industrial school for girls at Milwaukee. According to the testimony offered in the municipal court this morning by several witnesses, it would appear that Annie is a very naughty girl for one of her tender years. That many cases equally as severe have been remedied by a father is true in a great many instances in this city, and that Annie's father should acknowledge that he had no control over his fourteen-year-old daughter is mortifying to Mr. Splinter, who is a manly looking and apparently well educated German.

The prisoner is a bright appearing girl with blond hair and good features. Yesterday she was arrested on a warrant sworn out by her parents. She was taken to jail and kindly cared for by Sheriff Acheson. In spite of her tender years she never shed a tear when iron doors closed behind her. This morning she was up bright and early, and seemed to take an interest in looking her best when she was to appear before the court.

Given a Bad Reputation.

When arraigned this morning several witnesses were sworn for the state. Her father took the stand and stated that she was a bad girl, and would not heed a thing he said. He said he couldn't make her mind.

George Warren testified to finding her in a beastly state of intoxication Sunday night in the rear of the Palmer Memorial hospital in company with a number of boys who made their escape. The prisoner when sentence was pronounced did not seem a bit surprised.

We will receive a large invoice of fancy bulk oysters direct from the oyster beds at Baltimore, tomorrow morning. We sell them at 35c a quart. Sanborn.

Ry. at 8 a. m., leaves Janesville at 8:30 a. m., arriving at Milwaukee at 11:30 a. m. Returning train will leave Milwaukee over C. M. & St. P. Ry., running via Whitewater and Janesville, time of departure not yet decided upon. Fare for round trip $2. Tickets good until Monday, Oct. 24.

Blew Out the Gas.

The other night Mrs. N. E. Waggoner of Kansas stopped at the Cambridge house in Lima, Ohio, on her way to a small town near there. She blew out the gas, and was discovered in an unconscious condition by the night clerk, who broke into the room.

Care of Dahlias in Winter.

When frosts come dahlias can have the stems cut away and be lifted. Stand clumps of tubers in a shady place out of doors for a few days, covering at night if a frost is feared. Thus exposed to the air the tubers will lose a portion of moisture and be in better condition to keep well in a box or boxes of sand that is nearly dry. Caduliums can be treated in the same way. The cellar should be nearly dry are quite frost proof; if damp there is danger that the tubers will mold.

MERCHANT DUPED

BY SLICK FORGER

LOSES FIFTY DOLLARS AT FOOTVILLE

Sheriff Acheson Has Been Notified But There Is Little Chance of Securing Guilty Party—Passed Check On General Store—Arrested Preacher May Be Known Here

Sheriff Acheson has been notified that a slick forger has been getting in his work at Footville of late, and that on one check cashed he received the sum of fifty dollars. It was not long before it was discovered that the check was a bad one, but before any action could be taken the guilty party had made good his escape. A description of the forger was given to Sheriff Acheson by Footville citizens, but now that he has got such a start there is little doubt but what he will succeed in evading the law.

A poor description has been furnished the police of the guilty party. He is said to have represented that he had business with one of the creameries in that village, and on such pretense he had no trouble in cashing his check at one of the general stores.

By the arrest of Rev. George R. Parrish, pastor of the Congregational church, at Marshalltown, Iowa, by officers from Sandwich, Ill., charged with forging a check for $300, three years ago, under the name of Rev. Mark Thompson, and drawn on the Illinois Home Missionary society, the local police believe that he is the same man who tried to cash a large check at one of the Janesville banks not many months ago, but was unsuccessful. The description answers him.

He is also charged with issuing checks for $500 on Watertown and Elkhorn, Wis., banks, purporting to have been drawn by the American Board of Missions, but which were not cashed.

AN EVENING OF RARE FUN

Seats are on sale at box office. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

The doors for the concert tonight at the Congregational church will not open till 7:15. So bear this in mind and get there accordingly.
